

Hello,

I wish to voice my opposition to diluting the current FCC's media concentration protections. Diversity in the media is a core component of our democratic system. The example of Clear Channel in the radio medium should be clear evidence that my concerns are legitimate.

Please reconsider and, if anything, make it more difficult for a few large interests to monopolize our nation's media outlets.

Thank you,
Edward Gryniuk
204 Monroe Ave
Waterbury, CT 06705